An inspiring lead-up to Remembrance with Valour Canada and The Field of Crosses!

Valour Canada is happy to announce that from November 1 to 9, we are joining forces with The Field of Crosses on a mission to ignite the minds of over 400 youth with unique educational programs that will leave them inspired and informed. Stay tuned for more details as we prepare to honour the fallen and their incredible legacies.

The Battle of Vimy Ridge Presentation at Haggis Family & Friends Gathering

On the evening of August 22, 2023, Valour Canada's Lead Educator, Aaron Curtis, had the privilege of delivering a captivating presentation on Canada's role in The Battle of Vimy Ridge to 16 attentive guests, gathered at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris and Barb Haggis. Inspired by the sacrifices of the past, the group engaged in a lively group activity and spirited discussion. Our gratitude goes to the Haggis family for their generous hospitality and for creating an environment where we could savour both knowledge and fellowship.

Valour Canada collaborating with Ontario MTCS in Remembrance Day Ads checking for the second year

For the second year, Valour Canada was approached by Ontario Ministry of Tourism, Culture, and Sport, and asked to support them in the creation of a comprehensive Remembrance Day ad campaign. Upon completion, ads that promote Remembrance and the appreciation of Canada's veterans, will appear in print, radio, television, and online media.

Our military history library contains over 220 compelling and educational stories from Canada's military history, including:

Battle of the Plains of Abraham

The Seven Years' War (1756-63), fought between Britain and France, was a colonial struggle for dominance overseas. The Battle of the Plains of Abraham in 1759 represented a pivotal moment in the war when the tide turned against the French and in favour of the British.

4CMBG

After the conclusion of World War II, rising tensions between the United States (U.S.) and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (U.S.S.R.) spurred the creation of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) in 1949. Canada, the U.S., and nearly a dozen European countries, signed the Treaty.
