Spring Education Programming Winding Down

May 31: Students from A. B. Daley School visiting the Bomber Command Museum

Our 2024 Spring educational programming is winding down after a busy semester. We recently delivered the following in-person activities:

- Our Lady Queen of Peace School (Airdrie) on May 29
- St. Mary's High School on May 30
- A. B. Daley School field trip to the Bomber Command Museum (Nanton) on May 31

Additionally, we have a virtual presentation scheduled for June 24, which will reach around 600 students from the Calgary Catholic School District (CCSD). More details on that coming soon!

Visit Valour at Spruce Meadows' "North American" Tournament

Exciting news! Valour Canada will host an information booth at the Spruce Meadows "North American" tournament on July 5, 6, and 7. We welcome you to come visit the Valour team, try on artifacts, and purchase Valour-branded caps or shirts to support our mission. Look forward to seeing you there!

Our military history library contains over 260 compelling and educational stories from Canada's military history.

This June, join us in celebrating National Indigenous History Month by acknowledging the contributions by these two Indigenous veterans on D-Day 1944!

Raymond Anderson

On June 5, 1944, shortly before midnight, nineteen-year-old Raymond Anderson landed in France. A member of the 1st Canadian Parachute Battalion, Anderson had been sent in early to establish the Drop Zone in preparation for his battalion's role in the D-Day landings.

Tom “Little Chief” Settee

Tom “Little Chief” Settee was born in Cumberland House, Saskatchewan on 29 October 1914 with a lung disorder, but this never held him back from pushing himself in his career and later joining the army.
