

The
BRIEFING ROOM
Young Minds, Big Ideas

Supporting the Next Generation of Strategic Thinkers

Royal Alberta United Services Institute (RAUSI)'s new speaker series spotlights emerging voices in strategic thought, public policy, international affairs, security, and defence.

The Briefing Room: Young Minds, Big Ideas brings fresh perspectives from up-and-coming thinkers – scholars, analysts, and innovators – who are ready to challenge assumptions, propose bold ideas, and contribute to meaningful dialogue. Each speaker is invited to share, defend, and refine their thinking in front of a seasoned audience ready to engage.

This series offers:

- A platform for future leaders to gain experience, exposure, and connection.
- A forum for RAUSI members to hear new ideas and contribute their real-world insights.
- A unique intergenerational exchange that blends innovation with institutional wisdom.

Launching June 2025. Expect big ideas, challenging conversations, and fresh energy – in true RAUSI tradition.

Become a Sponsor

Help RAUSI empower the next generation of thinkers and leaders.

- Position your brand as a supporter of innovation, leadership, and civic engagement.
- Be visible to military professionals, public servants, academics, and community leaders.
- Directly invest in the development of young Canadian thought leaders.
- Connect with a community of lifelong learners committed to public service and national resilience.

Sponsorship includes:

- Recognition in event materials and social media.
- Inclusion in post-event media and recap materials.

Together, we can elevate youth voices and keep RAUSI at the forefront of Canadian strategic dialogue.
